ANYTHING ELSE I NEED TO KNOW?

This allocation of development land by Henry Boot Developments Limited has been well received locally, with three out of the five plots already committed. The remaining two plots have frontage to Henry Boot Way, and are adjacent to the new Fruit Marjet area, the bespoke designed Microgard unit and across from Banner Court, now a fully-occupied scheme, home to Datamark, MPH and Kinderland.

The site carries planning consent for employment uses, and would suit an owner occupier or investor developer creating a scheme of industrial units for investment letting purposes.
